Paros Public Library Yiannis Gikas

Kyklos Paros presents The Tango of Ethics
a book presentation and discussion

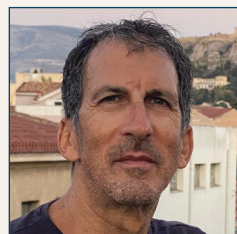

In his new book published in January 2023 and partly written during stays at the House of Literature in Lefkes, Jonathan Leighton proposes a deep, rigorous reassessment of how we think about ethics. A key paradigm is the conflict and interplay between two fundamentally different ways of seeing and being in the world - that of the intuitive human being who wants to lead a meaningful life and thrive, and that of the detached, rational agent who wants to prevent unbearable suffering from occurring.

Jonathan Leighton, PhD, is a writer, ethics strategist and social change advocate, and a leading proponent of a contemporary approach to ethics that focuses explicitly on the prevention and alleviation of suffering.
